

MORMONS OF CAPE COD.

Dennisport's Church of Latter-Day Saints.

It is of Branch That Rejects Brigham Young's Polygamy Creeds.

Founded in 1840, It Has 100 Members—
Annual Convention in August.

It is known scarcely at all beyond a few miles and to those immediately interested, that there is at Dennisport, on Cape Cod, a church of Mormons, or, correctly speaking, a branch of "the Reorganized church of Jesus Christ, of Latter Day Saints."

several instances have been the means of starting churches of this denomination where they have settled.

MRS HEPSEY WIXON.

At the death of Joseph Smith, the prophet, in 1844, there was a dissension in the church, which resulted in two distinct parties being formed, one led by
