

MARRIAGE

MEGATHLIN—CHASE—On Tuesday evening, at the home of the parents of the bride, Captain and Sister George W. Chase, Garfield street, Brockton, Massachusetts, Mr. J. Earnest Megathlin to Sr. Sylvia Chase; Elder M. H. Bond officiating, assisted by the Rev. H. G. Megathlin, pastor of Congregational Church of Quincy, and uncle of the groom. A large company of relatives and friends from Providence, Cape Cod, and elsewhere were present to witness the ceremony, which was of an unusually elaborate character, including in addition to the usual attendants of maid to the bride and groom attendant, a double ring service with page, flower girl, etc., etc., and who, with tokens of friendship by beautiful gifts, and most fervent good wishes for Sister Sylvia and congratulations for Mr. Megathlin in securing so good and promising a girl for a wife and life companion—manifested the high esteem in which both were held.

Nov 2
1900

Weddi

One
ing ho
brated
that p
at the parties
street.
Sylvia
and th
immen