

N---CHASE.

Known Young
Campello.

... prettiest weddings of the place last evening when ... rvia, daughter of Capt. and George F. Chase of Montello street, Campello, became the wife of J.
Ernest, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. C.
Megathlin.

The ceremony took place at the ne-home of the young couple, 1173 Mortello street. There were nearly guests, numbered among them being relatives from Somerville, Norfolk Downs, Providence, Weymouth and other places. They were received by two ushers, Percy N. Peterson and Daniel Joy, both of Providence. The house was prettily decorated, the parlor being made especially attractive.

The bridal party entered at 6:30 to the strains of the wedding march from "Lohengrin," Robert Anderson presiding at the organ. Miss Chase wore a costume of French organdie, white, trimmed with valenciennes lace, the gown cut en train. She wore a veil caught up with lilies of the valley, and carried bride roses. Miss Violet May McLean was bridesmaid. She wore a costume of white organdie over pink. Miss May Foster Megathlin was maid of honor, and wore white silk, trimmed with lace. A. L. Megathlin was best man. The bridal party was preceded by a pretty page, Royden Nickerson of Providence acting as such.

Rev. H. M. Bond of Providence officiated. He was assisted by Rev. H. G.
Megathlin of Norfolk Downs. The double ring service was used. A reception followed, lasting for two hours.
Music enlivened the hours and refreshments were served. They received many beautiful gifts. The groom is a conductor on the B., B. & T. road
