

CHURCH PROPERTY SALE COMPLETED

1921
Latter Day Saints Now Own
Lincoln Church—Bishop
Speaks Sunday.

The final papers for the purchase of the Lincoln Congregational church by members of the Reorganized Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints were passed Saturday evening at the Home National bank. The Saints are now in full possession of the property. This week the building will be wired with electricity. Other improvements will be made.

Bishop Myron C. Fisher of Boston, was the speaker at the morning service Sunday. His subject was, "The Duty of the Church to the People, Both Temporal and Spiritual." One candidate was baptized. Harold Kelley was in charge of the Sunday school. J. Ernest Megathlin conducted the religio at 6 o'clock. Bishop Fisher was the speaker at the evening service.
