

RECENT RITES TOLD AT PARTY

Mr. and Mrs. George O. Hinds, Lenox street, announce the marriage of their niece, Helen Gertrude Blackwell, 34 Harvard street, to Dana Sears Small, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert F. Small, 62 Market street, on May 20, at the parsonage of the South Congregational church, Rev. Francis L. Cooper officiating.

The announcement was made at a party given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Carleton Perkins, 559 Warren avenue, Tuesday evening. Many friends and relatives attended, among them being the mother of the bridegroom, his sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Grafton Atwood and son, James Powers of New Bedford, and the bride's brother, Arnold Blackwell.

They were attended by Mr. and Mrs. J. Carleton Perkins, sister and brother-in-law of the bridegroom.

The bride was graduated from Brockton High school and is employed as a bookkeeper for Jones & Vining, Inc. The bridegroom is a graduate of Brockton High and Bryant & Stratton Commercial school of Boston and is employed as an accountant for Abrasive Products, Inc., South Braintree.

They will reside at 34 Harvard street.

Invitations have been extended an-