

Caleb Chase (1811-1908)

The youngest of Captain J.M. Chase's seven children, Caleb became a leading Boston merchant and collector of U.S. coins and medals until his death. He submitted his "Barbours" coin Chase's name for the year's issue and was elected the primary representative of the series as shown in the Exchange Building under (1893-1894).

