

Captain Jonathan P. Edwards House

Jonathan Phillips Edwards, 1854-1936. After a career at sea, fishing and in coastal trading, Johnny P. returned and established a business known as the Dennisport Fishing Company, with wharves and buildings near the present Sea Street Beach. Capt. Edwards loved to dance and was a member of many of the village social groups. A fleet of 20 or more schooners fished from his wharf in the 1880's and 90's.
