Dear Mrs. Harding:

It was very sweet of you to write us such a good letter. And we thank you sincerely for thinking of us and taking the trouble to write.

We miss Annie very much indeed, and shall miss her more as the summer
Come - and we can't seem to make it right, that she had to go so soon. Mother and I are glad you are feeling so comfortable, and that you are doing so well - and we hope the warm weather will be a great help to you - Mother is looking forward to that to cure her diabetic pains - She has been sick for several weeks and is just now feeling a little like herself.

Please remember us to Mr. and Mrs. Alphonse Baker and accept much love to yourself.

Alice Kelley Smith

March 10 - 1915
Dennisport Massachusetts
My dear Mrs. Harding:

It was very sweet of you to write us such a good letter and we thank you sincerely for thinking of us, and taking the trouble to write.

We miss Annie\(^2\) very much indeed, and shall miss her more as the summer \(\text{over page}\) comes – and we can't seem to make it right, that she had to go so soon. Mother\(^3\) and I are glad you are feeling so comfortable, and that you are doing so well – and we hope the warm weather will be a great help to you. Mother is looking forward to that to cure her sciatic pains. She has been sick for several weeks and is just now feeling a little like herself.

Please remember us to Mr and Mrs. Alpheus Baker – and accept much love to yourself

Anne Kelley Smith
March 10 - 1915

---

\(\text{footnotes:}\)

\(^1\) Anna Colby Kelley – b. Dennis, 10 May 1861, d/o Horatio S. & Olive (Kelley) Kelley; d. 8 May 1944; m. 17 Feb 1912, Bangs K. Smith (1840-1928).

\(^2\) She was Annie S. Kelley, b. Center Sandwich, NH; d. Dennis Port, 6 Feb 1915, age 55y 10m 11d, carcinoma of kidney; widow of Dr. Horatio S. Kelley (1854-1912).

\(^3\) Olive Kelley – b. Dennis, 30 May 1827, d/o Doane Kelley & Olive Hall; d. 1 Oct 1917; m. 5 Feb 1847, Capt. Horatio S. Kelley Sr. (1825 – 1904),