Dear Aunt Susie

Received from you R. Genl. Elec. $78 - Pwd. Har. $49 - and Perm. R. R. $122 <sup>25</sup> total $249 <sup>25</sup> am deducting at your request $10 - for Christmas and $16 <sup>63</sup> amount barnie spent for you. I enclose you cash $222 <sup>62</sup> By the number of cards you received you surely were not forgotten. Don't do or say anything about your income tax. I don't think there is any tax unless the income is over two thousand dollar, and I don't think they will trouble you. and glad you are keeping so well. Priscilla goes back tomorrow and does not come home again until Easter. I trust Carrie sent you all the things you wished for Christmas.

with love
