Boston July 1, 1853

Stephen Homer Esq.

Dear Sir,

I have been requested to forward the enclosed to its address, will you have the goodness to hand it to the past or present officers of the Lyceum in East Dennis, and oblige

Yours truly,

P.S. Crowell
Boston, July 1853.

To the President and Directors of the Gentlemen,

The undersigned, having

Lettered the first season in many of the

placental edicts taken the liberty to request in the presentation of several dcmeans. Let this the following and other legal laws have been prepared.

I. Luther, the Protestant, compared with Loyola, the founder of the order of the Jesuits.

II. The Bible and practical life — Social, Domestic, and Business.

III. The Past better than the Past — historically proved.

IV. Law and the Lawyers — with Sketches of Eldon, Hale,

Curtis, Webster, Choate, and others.

V. Influence of the Reformation on the world.

VI. Business — its Elements of Success.

He has the honor to refer to Hon. Benjamin Seaver, Mayor of Boston.

Hon. Rufus Choate; Rev. H. Winslow, and Rev. Dr. Bacon.

Great shall be seen.

Yours truly,

A. H. Hallworth.
[1853-07-01; note from Seth Crowell to Stephen Homer; enclosed is a printed broadside promoting Mr. Halesmith as a lecturer for the Lyceum; both in an envelope addressed to "Mr. Henry H. Sears, East Dennis", postmarked "Chicago, Ill., Apr -", which envelope clearly does not go with the contents:]

Boston July 1. 1853

Stephen Homer Esq.

Dr Sir,

I have been requested to forward the enclosed to its address, will you have the goodness to hand it to the past or present officers of the Lyceum in East Dennis, and oblige

Yours truly

Seth Crowell