LESSONS.—The highest mark, given only for extraordinary merit, is 7; the lowest, 0.
 6 is the usual mark for a perfect lesson.
 4 denotes that the exercise is BARELY PASSABLE.
 DEPARTMENT marks are similar to those for lessons.
 ATTENDANCE.— 6 denotes the pupil's presence through the day's session; 5, dismissal before the expiration of the regular hours; 4, tardiness excused; 3, tardiness without excuse.
 A pupil beginning a half year is responsible for the whole of it; but, in some cases of long continued sickness, an allowance is made on the bill of the next half-year.

Parents are requested to examine this report carefully, sign it on the line below, and return it on the day after its receipt. A uniform signature is very desirable. Daily home study is necessary for every pupil doing full work. The results of Examinations are written in red ink; maximum, 100. W.
