Charles Frodsham, Chronometer Maker,
CLOCK MAKER TO THE QUEEN,
SUCCESSOR TO ARNOLD, A.D. 1843, AND TO B. L. VULLIAMY, PALL MALL, 1854, 84, STRAND, CORNER OF CECIL STREET, LONDON.
MARINE & POCKET CHRONOMETERS, PLAIN & REPEATING WATCHES.
SPLIT SECONDS WATCHES.
Church and Turret Clocks.
ASTRONOMICAL CLOCKS, ETC.

The British Government have been pleased to award Messrs. Arnold and Charles Frodsham the sum of £3,170 for the excellence of the principle of their Time keepers.

Capt. Hanss

Dr. to Charles Frodsham.

1854
May 13
To exchange of your second hand Marine Chronometer Chas. Frodsham No. 2216
for a new Chronometer Ch. No. 2128 2216.

Paid
C. Frodsham
May 14, 1859
Capt. Howes
1859
May 13 To exchange of your Second hand Marine
Chronometer Chas Frodsham No 2276
for a new Chronometer CF No 2828
2 2
[Marked paid, 14 May 1859]