

New York. Feb^y 14th 1866

P. S. Crowell. Esq^r

Your letter of the 13th with Jewetts. enclosed with it. I received this morning Crowell's duty note. I have seen Jewett this morning. he says he wrote you about the Singapore freight, and received a letter from you this morning, and says you did not say anything about it. he says he can arrange with the other shippers, but would not give any definite answer as regards terms. I can not place any confidence in what he says. we have not ^{done anything} any thing to speak of in the way of freight this week, as regards his complaints about me. I can satisfy you when I see you that he wrongs me. It is pretty certain he can not get the ship away by the 1st of March and if you want her to get away by that time, you will have to do something yourself about the matter as the month is half gone.

Yours M^r & C^r S^r,

Wm. A. Aday,
