Concord, N.H., 10 October, 1876,

Dear Capt. O'Sullivan,

I go to Napan this for next Sunday, and to Neat with the Sunday after, the 15 and 22nd instant.

Would we not put a be

In between, on some evening,

at your place?

It is not so much for money-making as for at Tempt to spread the Truth; albeit

I still work for my living, at least in past.

"The Plague and Pa. in Monopoly:

a Plan for labor and the laborer," is one of My Subject, and one which I think your people generally would approve, both men and women. Capt. Small has others, but proba

by none better adapted to your place and people.

Please let me hear from you on Saturday evening at Napanis, care Capt. Baj. Hallett a and will do, and I will be. Evermost sincerely and truly Dear Capt. Crowell –

I go to Hyannis for next Sunday, and to Harwich for the Sunday after, the 15 and 22\textsuperscript{nd} instant.

Could we not put a Lecture between, on some evening, at your place?

It is not so much for money, making as for attempt to spread the truth; albeit I still work for my living, at least in part.

“The Plague and Peril of Monopoly; A Plea for Labor and the Laborer,” is one of my Subjects, and one which I think your people generally would approve, both men and women. Capt. Small has others, but probably none better adapted to your place and people.

Please let me hear from you on Saturday eveing at Hyannis, Care Capt. Benj. Hallett; a Card will do, and I will be

Ever Most sincerely and truly yours,

Parker Pillsbury.