By Haynes Mahoney

150 Years Ago, September 1857

Sept. 4. Slander Cases in Barnstable Court of Common Pleas. Jonathan R. Howard vs. Francis A. Patterson. Also same vs. same and wife. These were slander cases and they were tried together. The offense charged consisted in the alleged fact the defendant had at divers times charged the plaintiff with having had criminal connection with the plaintiff’s daughter. Verdict for the plaintiff in the first case, and damages assessed at $1. In the second case the verdict was for the defendant.

Sept. 11. Ship Launched. The new ship Christopher Hall, announced to be launched from the yard of Mssrs. D. & A. Shiverick, East Dennis on Saturday last, could not be made to leave the land for her “native element” (as the poets call the water) much to the disappointment of a large group of spectators. She was successfully launched on Monday night when but few were present to see the performance. She is about 700 ton burthen, owned by P.S. Crowell Esq. and others, and will be commanded by Capt. Joshua Freeman of Brewster.
150 Years Ago, September 1857

Sept. 4. Slander Cases in Barnstable Court of Common Pleas. Jonathan R. Howard vs. Francis A. Patterson. Also same vs. same and wife. These were slander cases and they were tried together. The offense charged consisted in the alleged fact the defendant had at divers times charged the plaintiff with having had criminal connection with the plaintiff’s daughter. Verdict for the plaintiff in the first case, and damages assessed at $1. In the second case the verdict was for the defendant.

Sept. 11. Ship Launched. The new ship Christopher Hall, announced to be launched from the yard of Mssrs. D. & A. Shiverick, East Dennis on Saturday last, could not be made to leave the land for her “native element” (as the poets call the water) much to the disappointment of a large group of spectators. She was successfully launched on Monday night when but few were present to see the performance. She is about 700 tons burthen, owned by P. S. Crowell Esq. and others, and will be commanded by Capt. Joshua Freeman of Brewster.