

To P. S. Crowell Esq Trustee of the Estate of John Freeman of Brewster
Dr. fr

The undersigned Creditors of said Estate learning that the estimated value thereof but little exceeds the liabilities for which the property is held, and that there is little if any prospect of reducing said liabilities except in a very limited way from any income from the same: We therefore think it right and proper, and we request you to sell the same whenever an opportunity offers, and the same can be done at a fair price under the circumstances, and liquidate the debts, and not hold the property for speculative prices
