Dear Sir

I have been informed that the Elder of the Methodist Church advises Martha
not to compromise
in the existing <sup>to</sup> difficult with her husband
I think this is entirely wrong and unpardonable
She thinks much of your opinion and if you should advise her differently I think it would result in their good - if you

think of being in the
be very much pleased
on few moments

City soon I should to see you a
on this subject

Yours Truly

Dear Sir

I have been informed that the Elders of the Methodist Church advizes Martha not to compromize in the existing difficulties with Her Husband

I think this is entirely wrong and unfortunate

She thinks much of your opinion and if you should advise Her differently I think it would result in their good – if you [over page] think of being in the City soon I should be very much pleased to see you a few moments on this subject
