

Smith Rogers with his wife Desires ^{to} pray^s of this Congregation for her ~~and~~ who lies in a poor state of health that God will be pleased to raise her a gain to a state of health or fit her for his will ^{and} holy charge

[17xx Req. for Prayers Smith Rogers^[2]; on a scrap of paper:]

Smith Rogers with his wife Desirs prayers to god of this Congregation for hur who Lies in a pore State of health that God will be Pleased to Raise hur a gain to a State of Health or fit ur for his will and holy Change

² Smith Rogers and Ruth Gage were married in 1772. The prayers must have worked because she died in 1834.