

Provincetown Dec 3.

Dear Brother

I conclude that you have heard of the death of my good friend Rev. J. Larnon. I attended his funeral on Friday returned that evening and went to town and preached here on the sabbath my text gives his character in a full and correct manner. An excellent spirit was in him!

Mr. Sanford was here several days preached in the fore noon was called out a set board of the meetinghouse to go on of the sabbath. Mary returned that sabbath morning about 3 o'clock after an absence from months on a visit to Portland Windham Oisfield, Salem and Boston in good health. I find that the venerable man's father Alden rests from his labors. Two of the oldest in the County have gone near to gether. Will you and let us know how sister Judith is. Mr. Shaw preached at Mr. Larnon's funeral, Mr. Jarvis and Mr. Maylie who is preaching there.
