Dear Brother,

I desire you to send on the letter to Mr. Reed post paid marked according to the post laws I enclose to you the change. I am in hopes that my horse will prove a good one thus far he seems to be gentle and kind.

Mary has rode him several times none back. There are great fears entertained that one of our vessels that set out for the banks is lost.
Joseph Sawtells master.

Write us often that we may know how you are in usual health.
John Stone has raised his building and has partly boarded it.

Mr Stone and Mary me in love to you and family, health and looking and family.

Your affectionate brother Nathaniel Stone.
