Dear Brother Provincetown 26 July

I was rejoiced to hear that you had so good a passage to and from Boston and so soon. We had company come the very evening that you left us and are still with us. We have had our time taken up Mrs Stone and Mary frequently are fatigued. When alone we are more at leisure.

What has induced Andrew so suddenly to close business in Dennis and to go to Boston? Our Bankers are continually arriving. One of the hired men on board schooner Plant was drowned in the harbour by bathing when in a state of intoxication last evening. The surveyors are yet with us. They are making a very particular survey. Chadley jags about slowly appears to be tough and sturdy. He has been once to the trace in the chaise. Your affectionate

Provincetown 26 July 1833

Dear Brother,

I was rejoiced to hear that you had so good a passage to and from Boston and so soon. We had company come the very evening that you left us and are still with us. We have had our time taken up Mrs Stone and Mary frequently are fatigued. When alone we are more at leisure.

What has induced Andrew so suddenly to close business in Dennis and to go to Boston? Our Bankers are continually arriving. One of the hired men on board schooner Plant was drowned in the harbour by bathing in a state of intoxication last evening. The surveyers are yet with us. They are making a very particular survey. Charley jogs about slowly, appears to be tough and hardy. He has been over to the Base in the chaise.

Your affectionate Brother.

Mrs Stone and Mary join me in love to you and Mrs Stone and family.
