

St Louis May 8th 1895 -
Dear Miss Stone.

Your letter of April 28th received and ought to have been answered before. I hope you will excuse my seeming neglect, but my time & thoughts have been very much taken up the past week with other matters - I think that the coat of arms that I mentioned is still in the house belonging to my nephews & nieces in Yarmouth - I expect to be there with my family early in July & will then see if a copy can be had and let you know. I saw frequently via Dennis during the Summer months and shall hope

to see you the coming season.
as I should like very much to read the oration delivered by my grandfather July 4th 1871.

Yours Respectfully

St Louis May 8th 1895.

Dear Miss Stone.

Your letter of April 28th received and ought to have been answered before. I hope you will excuse my seeming neglect, but my time & thoughts have been very much taken up the past week with other matters. I think that the Coat of Arms that I mentioned is still in the house belonging to my nephews and nieces in Yarmouth. I expect to be there with my family early in July & will then see if a Copy can be had and let [over page] you know. I am frequently in Dennis during the Summer months and shall hope to see you the coming season, as I should like very much to read the Oration delivered by my grandfather July 4th 1811.
