

West Medford, Mass.

April 20, 1899.

Mr. J. M. Stone

Dear Sir

Enclosed I return to you the letter from Herman Stone to the Rev. Nathan Stone and the latter's reply.

As they were my great, great uncles I was much interested in the correspondence. Their sister, Eunice Stone, who married David Bangs & was one of my great, great grandmothers, lived to be 106 years old & when 100 went to church & listened to a sermon in honor of her Century. She had 15 children & nearly all lived to grow up.

I should like to keep the old sermon a little longer as I have not yet decided how much I shall quote from it. Enclosed I return the cuttings to you. Thanking you for your kindness I am

Yours truly,

David H. Brown.

[1899-04-20 David H. Brown; letter, no envelope:]

West Medford, Mass.

April 20, 1899.

Mr. J. M. Stone

Dear Sir

Enclosed I return to you the letter from Heman Stone to the Rev. Nathan Stone and the latter's reply.

As they were my great breat uncles I was much interested in the correspondence. Their sister, Eunice Stone, who married David Bangs & was one of my great, great grandmothers, lived to be 106 years old & when 100 went to church & listened to a sermon in honor of her Century. She had 15 children & nearly all lived to grow up. [over page] I should like to keep the old sermon a little longer as I have not yet decided how much I shall quote from it. Enclosed I return the cuttings to you. Thanking you for your kindness I am

Yours truly,

David H. Brown.

These collections are protected by United States and International copyright laws. Personal non-commercial use of these materials is allowed. Any other use is strictly prohibited without the express written permission of the Dennis Historical Society.