
OBITUARY.

Captain Alpheus Baker.

A letter has been received in this city, stating that Capt. Alpheus Baker of barque C. C. Leary, from New York for Sourabaya, had died on the 7th of August, when within three days' sail of his destination. Capt. Baker left New York last April, and was then in a poor state of health. His remains were buried at sea. Capt. Baker was born in Dennis, Cape Cod, and leaves a widow and four children residing at Malden. He was only 36 years old, but his meritorious qualities had early gained him a fine position in his profession, and won the respect of all who knew him. He had sailed in the employ of Hon. Nehemiah Gibson of East Boston for the past six years.

Copy sent to Brother of Boston to be read

[Obit – Alpheus Baker Jr 2 – paper unknown; the year is 1874; hand-written near the clipping, "Only Brother of Susan F B Harding":]

Captain Alpheus Baker.

A letter has been received in this city, stating that Capt. Alpheus Baker of barque C. C. Leary, from New York for Sourabaya, had died on the 7th of August, when within three days' sail of his destination. Capt. Baker left New York last April, and was then in a poor state of health. His remains were buried at sea^[13]. Capt. Baker was born in Dennis, Cape Cod, and leaves a widow and four children residing at Malden. He was only 36 years old, but his meritorious qualities had early gained him a fine position in his profession, and won the respect of all who knew him. He had sailed in the employ of Hon. Nehemiah Gibson of East Boston for the past six years.

¹³ The report is incorrect; he was buried in Surabaya, Java, where a stone is erected to his memory.