In South Dennis, 9th inst., Capt. Reuben R. Whelden, aged 35 years.

In this dispensation, many tender ties have been broken, an affectionate wife, a widowed mother, brothers and sisters, are deprived of one who in all his relations to them was kind and faithful.

Farewell beloved, you may not know
The glories which are thine,
Till through the silent way we go,
And see the light divine,
Which shins from the fount above,
Where all is joy and peace and love.

[Signature]

Seymour Bangs, the General Order
In South Dennis, 9th inst., Capt. Reuben R. Whelden, aged 35 years.
In this dispensation, many tender ties have been broken, an affectionate wife, a widowed mother, brothers and sisters, are deprived of one who in all his relations to them was kind and faithful.
Farewell beloved, we may not know
The glories which are thine,
Till through the silent way we go,
And see the light divine,
Which shines from the fount above,
Where all is joy and peace and love.

[In margin: “First husband of Susan F Baker Harding”]

---

Reuben Ryder Whelden was born in South Dennis, 8 Nov 1829, s/o Miller Whelden Jr. & Anna (Ryder); d. South Dennis, 9 Mar 1865 of consumption; m. 6 Aug 1863, Susan Freeman Baker.